Inspired by the Music Weekend? Wanting to start to join in with the singing or to play an instrument to lead our worship, then read on...We're reviewing the next steps in music and worship for us as a church on 3 June (so please speak to John Beckett if you'd like to contribute to that or be kept in touch with developments) and there is definite energy for starting a form of 'Gospel Choir'. But in the meantime if you have always felt that you cannot sing but love singing, then Barry Dunnage has offered to run a few coaching sessions especially for you.....St Matts Catts Starting with a session on Friday 29 May at 7.30pm in the lounge, Barry will take up the challenge of trying to get any 'non singers' to sound half decent and form a Catts Chorus. The emphasis will be on gospel music and fun. There will be another session in June. Everyone welcome but be warned that this is aimed at those who are 'tone deaf' so it could be painful for those who are not. If Barry succeeds, we may even be ready for a choir but he has given no guarantee of success! Bring your own alcoholic or non-alcoholic beverage and glass.

20 June 12-5pm A Christian Praise Festival including worship leader Lou Fellingham and key speaker Simon Guillebaud, to be held at Torquay United Football Club. For more info, contact Revd Jim Davies on 07787 842002 or see leaflets in church.

Confirmation Bishop Robert is taking a Confirmation Service here on 28 June at 10.30am. If you are wondering about getting confirmed yourself, please speak to one of the clergy as soon as possible.

Rough Sleepers Project We've been asked to consider being one of the churches in Torquay to host rough sleepers for one day a week in February 2016. If you feel God may be calling you to help staff this sort of project, please speak to John Beckett, Sylvia Barratt or Phil Miles.

Readings

Acts 2

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. ² Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³ They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. ⁴ All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. ⁵ Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. ⁶ When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken. ⁷ Utterly amazed, they asked: “Aren’t all these who are speaking Galileans? ⁸ Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome ¹¹ (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!” ¹² Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, “What does this mean?” ¹³ Some, however, made fun of them and said, “They have had too much wine.” ¹⁴ Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: “Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. ¹⁵ These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It’s only nine in the morning! ¹⁶ No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

¹⁷ “In the last days, God says,

I will pour out my Spirit on all people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy,

your young men will see visions,

your old men will dream dreams.

¹⁸ Even on my servants, both men and women,

I will pour out my Spirit in those days,

and they will prophesy.

¹⁹ I will show wonders in the heavens above

and signs on the earth below,

blood and fire and billows of smoke.

²⁰ The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.

²¹ And everyone who calls

on the name of the Lord will be saved.’

John 7

³⁷ On the last and greatest day of the festival, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, “Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink. ³⁸ Whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.”

³⁹ By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive. Up to that time the Spirit had not been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.
