Gracious Father, you gave up your Son
out of love for the world:
lead us to ponder

through the shedding of our Saviour's blood,
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Readings

Isaiah 43: 16-21

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says—
he who made a way through the sea,
a path through the mighty waters, <sup>17</sup> who drew out the chariots and
horses,
the army and reinforcements
together,
and they lay there, never to rise again,
extinguished, snuffed out like a wick:
<sup>18</sup> “Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.
<sup>19</sup> See, I am doing a new thing!

Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness
and streams in the wasteland.
<sup>20</sup> The wild animals honor me,
the jackals and the owls,
because I provide water in the wilderness
and streams in the wasteland,
to give drink to my people, my chosen,
<sup>21</sup> the people I formed for myself
that they may proclaim my praise.

John 12: 1-8

Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup> Here a dinner was given in Jesus’ honor. Martha served, while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him. <sup>3</sup> Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus’ feet and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

<sup>4</sup> But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected, <sup>5</sup> “Why wasn’t this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year’s wages.” <sup>6</sup> He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.

<sup>7</sup> “Leave her alone,” Jesus replied. “It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial. <sup>8</sup> You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me.”

For our prayers and praise this week

Sun	Please pray for today’s services and the leaders . Please pray for the Annual Parochial Church Meetings this afternoon. Pray that many will come and give thanks for the last year and hear what is going to happen in the future.
Mon	Our Parliament and members need much wisdom, clarity and understanding of the nations’ needs as they make some crucial decisions today and the rest of the week.
Tues	Pray for the Lent Courses that we might all be challenged in how to ‘Talk Jesus’ with our families, friends, neighbours and acquaintances .
Wed	Pray for all who are ill , in hospital or at home; all those awaiting operations or results of scans and other tests.

Thurs	Now that the Night Shelter Scheme has finished, pray for those sleeping rough and needing food that they may know where to find help and shelter. Pray that all refugees and asylum seekers may find their hearts desires.
Fri	Pray for one another with love, compassion and understanding and that we will be tolerant and careful how we speak.
Sat	As we prepare for Easter may we understand the wonder of Holy Week, Good Friday, and the joy of Easter, that Jesus was raised from the dead for us.
Sun	Let us remember before God all the different activities that take place in our Church buildings, especially those run by and for non church members. May they really feel God's presence in this place.

Wellspring Update

We have started showing building companies around the church as they prepare tenders for the Project. We are hoping to review these on 25 April. In the meantime please continue to top up your money boxes and Smarties tubes so that we can collect them all in on Easter Sunday.
