For our praise and prayers this week

Sun	As we worship in our homes or elsewhere, may we remember that we are still in the presence of the Living God and so worship Him with all our heart.
Mon	The PCC are meeting electronically tonight. We pray they have real wisdom in their discussion and decision making, especially in regard to returning to church for services.
Tues	Praise God for those producing these services electronically to such a high standard.
Wed	We pray for all who are unwell, waiting for procedures or operations, all in pain and those who have recently been bereaved. May the Lord meet them all at their various points of need.
Thurs	Pray about the pandemic searing our world and pray for a solution to kill it.
Fri	Pray for all who are suffering mentally, materially or socially as a result of the lockdown.
Sat	Pray for our staff team and all with any responsibility in our church. Pray that we may all be more aware of the financial needs of the church and see if we can give more.
Sun	Pray for those who are being taught how to lead "Godly Play" so that they can lead people to Jesus.

Learning from Philippians this week:

Marks of the community – part 2 – no grumbling!

Last week, we began our look at chapter 2, and Andrew Green enabled us to learn about harmony, and humility as we are urged to follow the example of Jesus – if you didn't catch that sermon, why not find it in last week's YouTube 11am service? (it's about 9 minutes in!). Today, we continue that lesson, understanding why Paul's instruction about 'no grumbling' is so important to us as a church family.

Church Opening and Online Worship Update

As you may know, we've begun to open the doors of the church again 😊
So far, this is just on Wednesday mornings, 10am – 1230pm, and also Saturday 4th July. As with all of the Covid guidelines, this is likely to change – even this week! The Government guidelines for places of worship were only released on 29th June, and the clergy of the Diocese have just had an online briefing on Friday 3rd July – with a second set of guidance notes since Tuesday to review how the 'private prayer' opening has worked out, and to digest the latest guidelines, with a view to deciding what sort of church services we can hold. It is fair to say that the requirements for social distancing and sanitising and the restrictions on numbers of people who can come, means that any worship service will be so different that it is hard to assess what sort of worship we can offer together safely – especially when it comes to sharing Holy Communion.

Until then, do join in the online worship – and do keep checking the church website and notices carefully for updates. Don't be surprised if you are still feeling very disorientated about life, frustrated about not being able to get to church, or finding prayer difficult. It is bound to be different and wearying without the usual routines that help us stay in touch with God and without the support of one another face to face. But if you haven't found new ways that help you pray, then do take a look at the Prayer Guide we published at the start of lockdown – <https://www.st-matthias-church.org/content/pages/documents/1585339152.pdf> or contact one of the Clergy or Readers for a chat on the phone.

God still has work for us to do with him, whether at home or not...so be encouraged by a verse from today's reading: For God is at work within you, helping you want to obey him, and then helping you do what he wants. (Philippians 2:13 The Living Bible)

God bless, John B

News

5th July is also the anniversary of the founding of the NHS – founded in 1948. Spend a moment thanking God for this amazing service and healing work that is done. You may find this prayer helpful to use:

God of healing and compassion,
we thank you for the establishment of the National Health Service,
and for the dedication of all who work in it:
give skill, sympathy and resilience
to all who care for the sick,
and your wisdom to those engaged in medical research.
Strengthen all in their vocation through your Spirit, that through their work many will be restored to health and strength;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

And another survey!

Can you help the Diocesan Communications Team please, by completing this survey?

They write: "Over the last four months, our resilience has been tested in all sorts of ways. The crisis has shown how important good and accurate communication is".

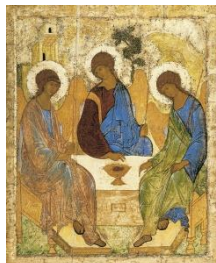

The survey is open until 19th July and, as a thank you, all completed responses will be entered into a draw to win a voucher! Please fill in the survey by clicking on this link:

Book Recommendation

The Circle of Love

Praying with Rublev's icon of the Trinity - Ann Persson

Whatever we gaze at for a long time, we remember.

Ann had eye surgery and recovery meant that she had to lay on her front for two weeks. Rather than looking at the carpet she asked that her favourite icon be placed where she could see it. Rublev's icon of the Trinity became the start of a journey into the deeper meaning of iconography. The Circle of Love is a devotional book and a bible study. At this time of uncertainty in our lives I would recommend this book, it centres me in the everlasting love of God. I hope it does for you too. Gillian Rose

Good News 😊

Well done to Ruth B who has just been accepted for Ordination training! As you may know, the discernment process the Church follows takes a couple of years, though Ruth has sensed God's call on her life for this role for some time now. While Ruth expects to train full time at St. Mellitus College in Plymouth – she is hoping that St Matthias will be her placement church, and so we are not anticipating any significant changes for the way that John and Ruth minister with us here. They want to say 'Thank you for all the encouragement that St Matthias has blessed us with on the journey so far.'
