Hebrews 2: 14-18

<sup>14</sup> Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death – that is, the devil – <sup>15</sup> and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death. <sup>16</sup> For surely it is not angels he helps, but Abraham’s descendants. <sup>17</sup> For this reason he had to be made like them, fully human in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup> Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Luke 2: 22-40

Jesus Presented in the Temple

<sup>22</sup> When the time came for the purification rites required by the Law of Moses, Joseph and Mary took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord <sup>23</sup> (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, “Every firstborn male is to be consecrated to the Lord”<sup>[a]</sup>), <sup>24</sup> and to offer a sacrifice in keeping with what is said in the Law of the Lord: “a pair of doves or two young pigeons.”<sup>[b]</sup> <sup>25</sup> Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. <sup>26</sup> It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord’s Messiah. <sup>27</sup> Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the custom of the Law required, <sup>28</sup> Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying:

<sup>29</sup> “Sovereign Lord, as you have promised,
you may now dismiss<sup>[c]</sup> your servant in peace.

<sup>30</sup> For my eyes have seen your salvation,
<sup>31</sup> which you have prepared in the sight of all nations:
<sup>32</sup> a light for revelation to the Gentiles,
and the glory of your people Israel.”

<sup>33</sup> The child’s father and mother marveled at what was said about him. <sup>34</sup> Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother: “This child is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against, <sup>35</sup> so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul too.”

<sup>36</sup> There was also a prophet, Anna, the daughter of Penuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, <sup>37</sup> and then was a widow until she was eighty-four.<sup>[d]</sup> She never left the temple but worshipped night and day, fasting and praying. <sup>38</sup> Coming up to them at that very moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup> When Joseph and Mary had done everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee to their own town of Nazareth. <sup>40</sup> And the child grew and became strong; he was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was on him.

Footnotes

[a] Exodus 13:2,12

[b] Lev. 12:8

[c] Or promised, / now dismiss

[d] Or then had been a widow for eighty-four years.

PCC POINTS OF PRAYER

The PCC held a meeting on Monday, 12 January and prayer is requested for:

1. Pray that God will guide those involved with the process of appointing our new Rector, giving them both wisdom and discernment.
2. Pray for the many opportunities we have to share the love of Jesus with our community; for the amazing volunteers who sacrifice their time to put on the different events.
3. Pray for the financial situation of the church – that people will feel led by God to give generously, to enable us to continue to use the building for worship and to serve our community.

The minutes of our previous PCC meeting dated 10 November 2025 can be found on the notice board in the Hall.

Ecoaction for February - Fair Trade shopping - maybe adding one Fair Trade item to your shopping each week and/or signing up to the Fair Trade Foundation newsletter at Fairtrade Foundation

Prayers for the week

Monday Continue to pray for the appointment of our new rector and for those making that appointment.

Tuesday Pray for the many people who have been affected by the floods and winds recently.

Wednesday Pray for our Health Service under so much pressure. We should praise God that we do have a national health service in times of need.

Thursday Pray for the world situation, so many wars and threats of war from a number of countries. Pray for our politicians that they may never put their own interests first but that of the people they serve.

Friday Pray for all those who are lonely. Help us to befriend particularly those in our church family and our neighbours who are alone. Help us to have discernment to spot people who need help.

Saturday Pray for the recently bereaved who are known to us and those suffering with their health.

Sunday Praise God that we can go and worship Our Lord together.
