2 Corinthians 9:1-9

There is no need for me to write to you about this service to the Lord's people. <sup>2</sup> For I know your eagerness to help, and I have been boasting about it to the Macedonians, telling them that since last year you in Achaia were ready to give; and your enthusiasm has stirred most of them to action. <sup>3</sup> But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you in this matter should not prove hollow, but that you may be ready, as I said you would be. <sup>4</sup> For if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we – not to say anything about you – would be ashamed of having been so confident. <sup>5</sup> So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to visit you in advance and finish the arrangements for the generous gift you had promised. Then it will be ready as a generous gift, not as one grudgingly given.

<sup>6</sup> Remember this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. <sup>7</sup> Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. <sup>8</sup> And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. <sup>9</sup> As it is written:

‘They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor;
their righteousness endures for ever.’

Matthew 6:19-24

<sup>19</sup> ‘Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. <sup>20</sup> But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. <sup>21</sup> For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

<sup>22</sup> ‘The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are healthy, your whole body will be full of light. <sup>23</sup> But if your eyes are unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

<sup>24</sup> ‘No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money.

Monday Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength (Deuteronomy 6 v 5)
As we start a new week help us to put this verse into action.

Wednesday Pray for people experiencing floods here in the UK and other parts of the world.

Thursday Continue to pray for all those who are involved in the continuing ministry of St Matthias during our vacancy.

Friday Pray for the continuing attempts to get the injured out of Gaza. And for all those suffering there.

Saturday Pray that God will prepare our hearts ready to come to worship tomorrow and for all those taking part in our services.

Sunday Let’s Praise God as we worship Him today.
Let our praises really ring out from this church!

PCC POINTS OF PRAYER

The PCC held a meeting on Monday, 12 January and prayer is requested for:

1. Pray that God will guide those involved with the process of appointing our new Rector, giving them both wisdom and discernment.
2. Pray for the many opportunities we have to share the love of Jesus with our community; for the amazing volunteers who sacrifice their time to put on the different events.
3. Pray for the financial situation of the church – that people will feel led by God to give generously, to enable us to continue to use the building for worship and to serve our community.

The minutes of our previous PCC meeting dated 10 November 2025 can be found on the notice board in the Hall.
